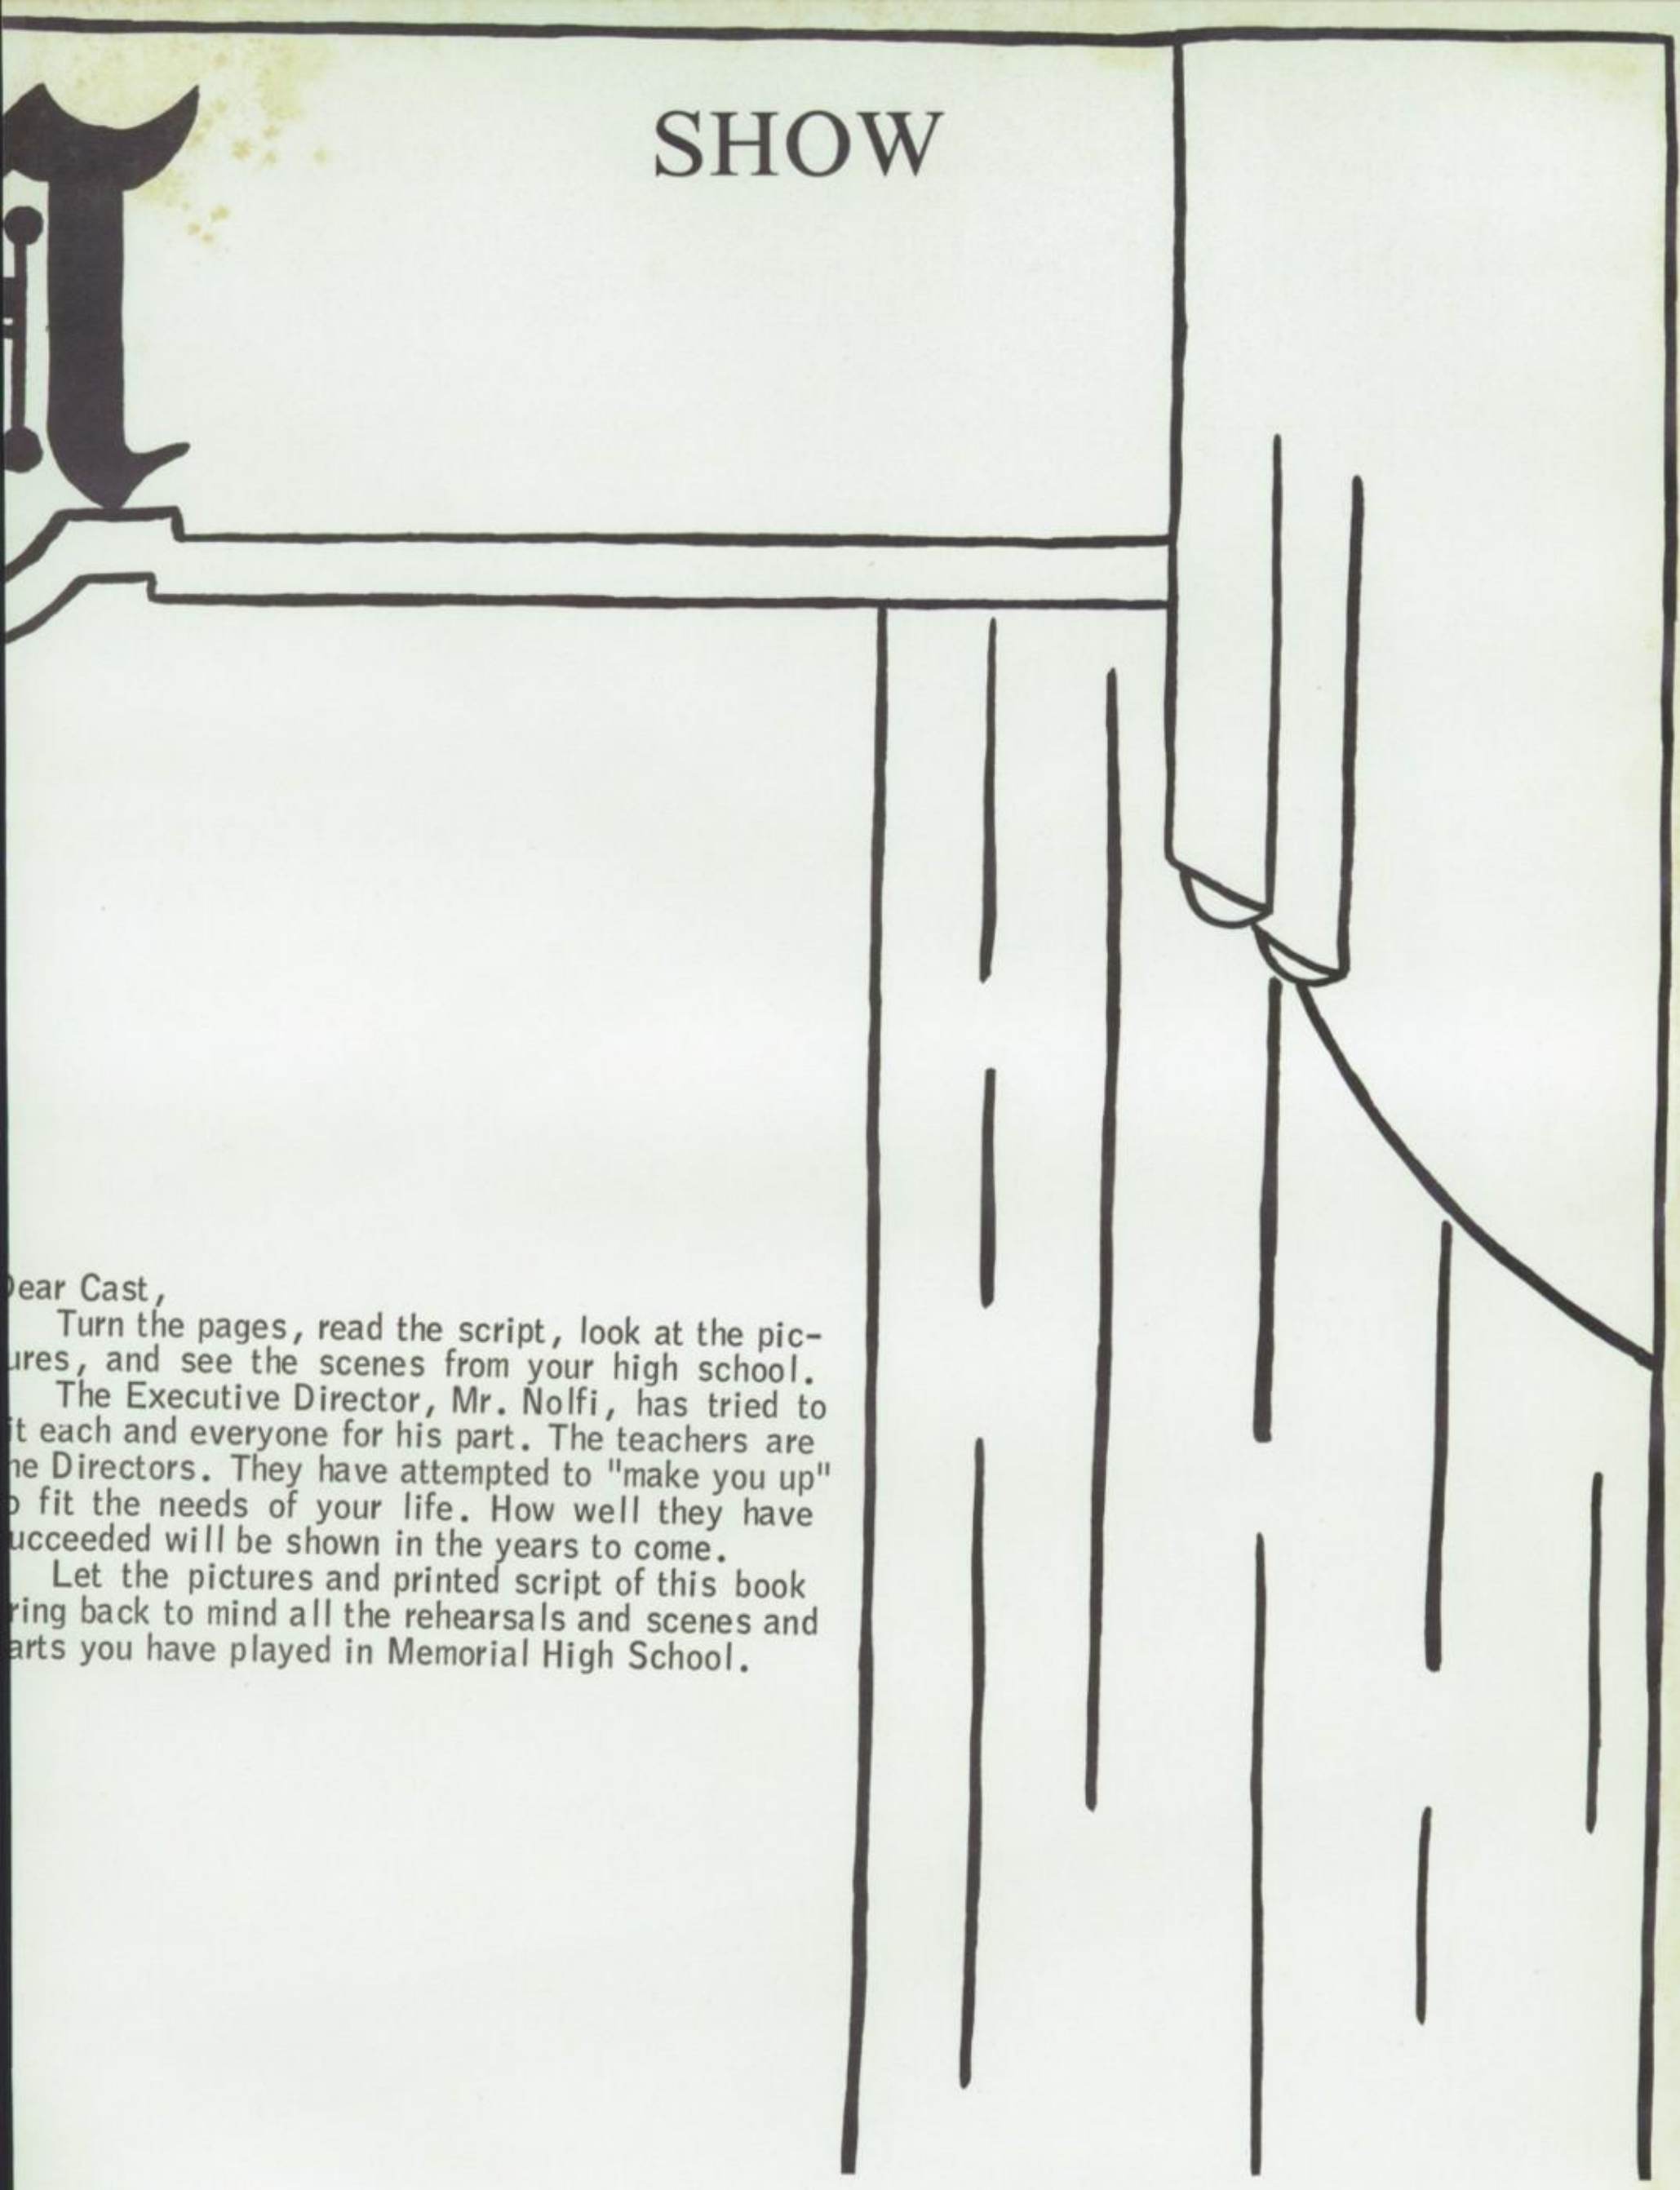
SHOW



Dear Cast,

Turn the pages, read the script, look at the pictures, and see the scenes from your high school.

The Executive Director, Mr. Nolfi, has tried to fit each and everyone for his part. The teachers are the Directors. They have attempted to "make you up" to fit the needs of your life. How well they have succeeded will be shown in the years to come.

Let the pictures and printed script of this book bring back to mind all the rehearsals and scenes and parts you have played in Memorial High School.

SENIORS TAKE FIVE

Cafeteria food provides satisfaction for Pam Zapka's appetite.

Telling jokes is one of Jonny Diamandis's favorite pastimes.

In English class Greg Mihalopoulas excavates an unknown civilization.

Seniors take a break from diligent study as they prove that school isn't always all work and no play. Whether clowning around in the halls or participating in various activities, these few scenes depict the wonderful experiences we all shared and will remember forever.

At the Senior Class Bingo and Card Party Matt Carlozzi and Rita Felde enjoy themselves.

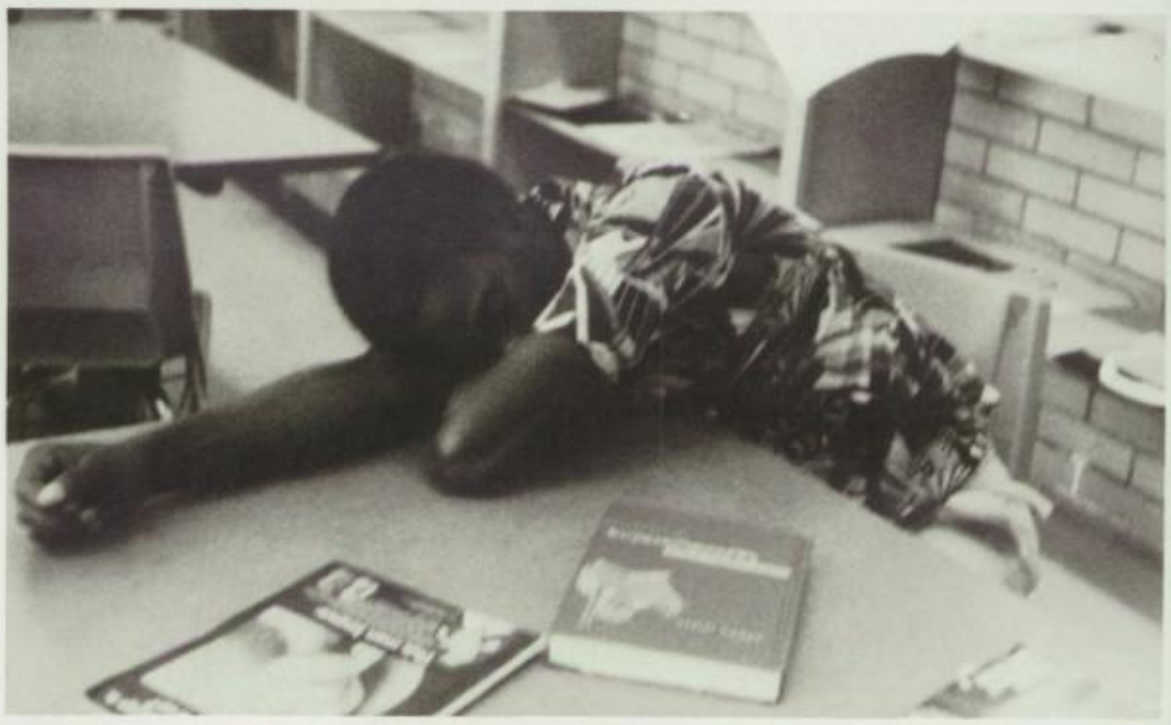
SENIORS PROJECT EMOTIONS

Janice Dubos cannot eat a bugged ho-ho, but she does enjoy her orange drink.

Being the last ones out of the lunch room is nothing unusual for Lucy Mazzarino, Lori Chrapcynski and Pam Bednarik.

What has come before Emanuel Ginnis' eyes? Only he knows.

Knowing that art class can wait, Lance Jones sleeps quietly.

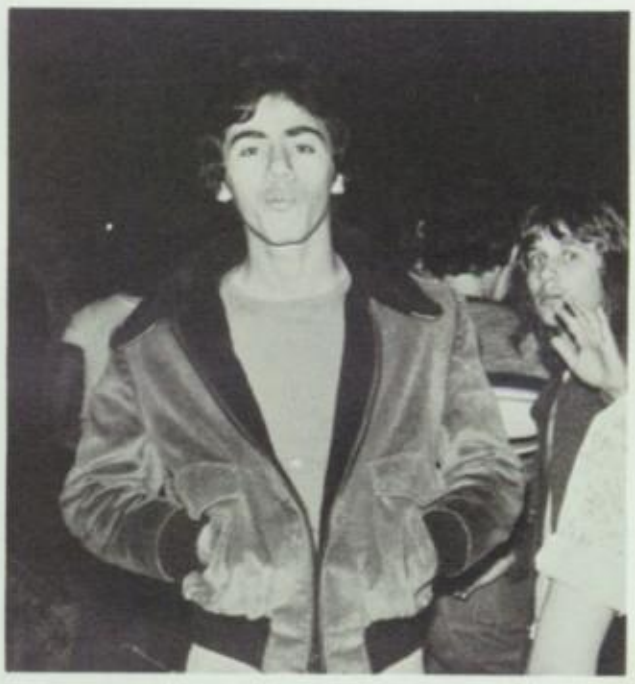


Friday assemblies prove to be enjoyable for Mike Duda, Roberta Kish and Kathy Konopka.

After working hard all week in school, Gloria Hanuscak, Cathy Lemmo and Tony Rivalsky gather at the Friday night dances and talk shop.

The "mad camera man" struck again in these senior student life pictures. While they weren't looking, "click" the camera shutter sounded and the look on their faces was one of surprise.

The Reveler photographer was on guard, always looking for different expressions and actions.



An artist usually paints on paper, but Bob Spencer decorates the table.

Louie Diaz puckers his lips waiting for his dream girl.

Gee, isn't it a wonder how students are so prompt arriving at McDonald's after Friday night games?

AND NOW, A WORD FROM OUR SPONSOR.

TO THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1977:

Congratulations and best wishes to each of you! This is it. This is the year you FINALLY graduate. Most of you have been looking forward to this year for a long time. I hope your Senior year has been as great as you thought and hoped it would be.

During the three years that I've been your class sponsor, I've gotten to know a great many of you. It has been a great pleasure to work with you. No other graduating class will ever be as special as "my class".

Junior year is an extra-special time.
It is a year filled with so many unforgettable memories.

Getting involved
Joining clubs and being officers
Memo
Feeling confident
To skip and get away with it.

Working together as a class
Selling tickets
A big crowd at the chicken dinners
Dancing to Rooti Kazooti
Decorating the Homecoming float

Growing up
Getting a drivers' license
Choosing class motto
Colors, gem, flower
Your class ring
NHS induction
Knights in White Satin
Going to graduation parties
Being an upperclassman.

Class Officers: Barbara Scanlon--Treas., Mernie Zackasee--Pres, Cindy Manno--Vice, Butchie Sferra--Soc. Chair., Gina Zinghini--Sec., Chuck Nisevich--Soc. Chair, Miss Polkabla--Sponsor.

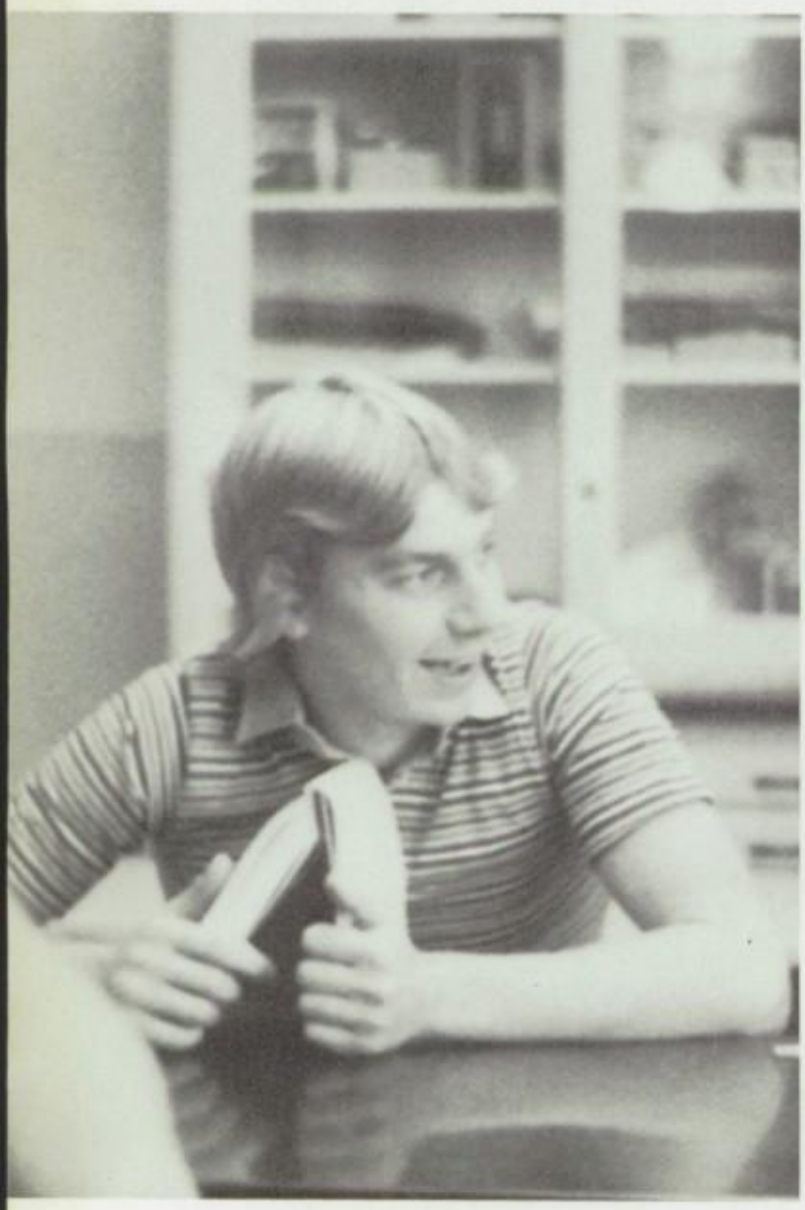
JUNIORS AD-LIB

Marcia Trexler and Joey Mistovich are not continuous workers; they DO take breaks.

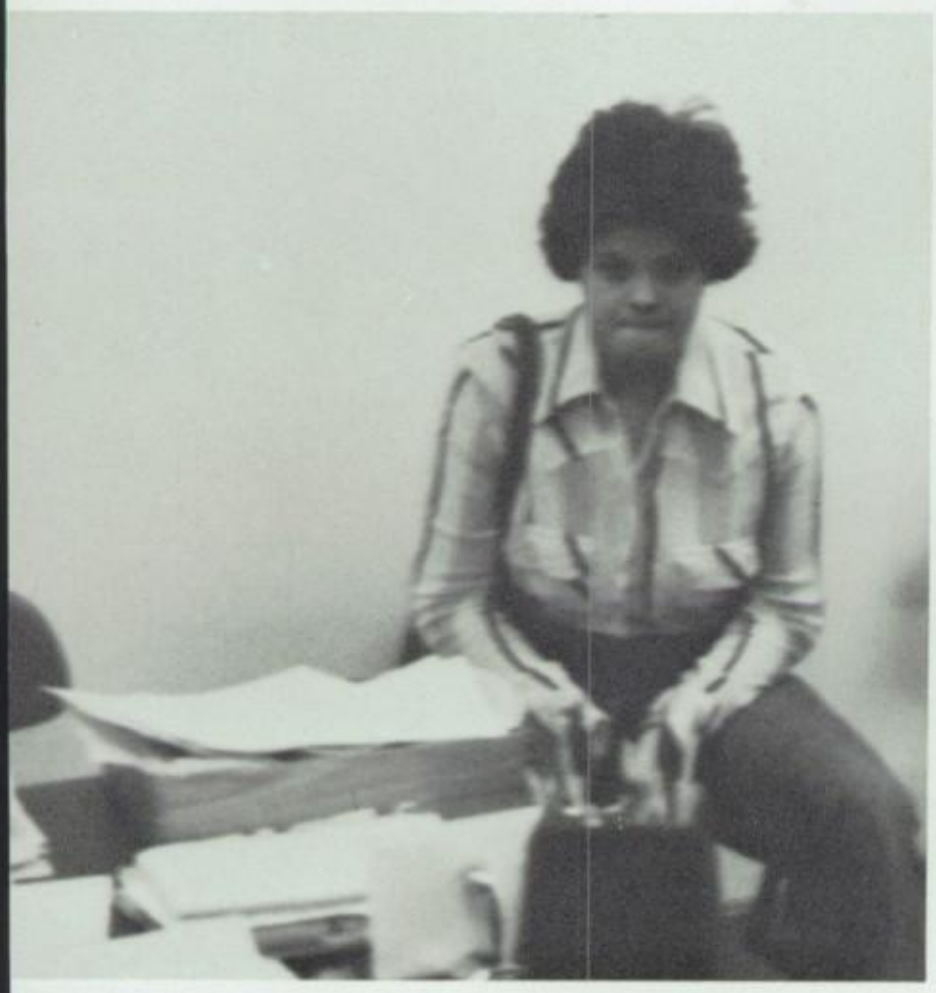


Smiley Struharik is contemplating his next move.

Studyhall proves to be the thrill of the day for Eva Chiera.

Tony Teague gets down to the music as he dances the night away.

Michele Romeo no longer minds being called to the office.



n Physics class Antonette Mediate dreams of electro-mag-etic forces.

Nick Kavorklis proves an uncanny talent for the phonetic alphabet.

Monte Beck has less of a chance of being distracted in his own little corner.

Faced with many difficult and strange situations, these classmates are caught in action as they star in their memorable performance as Juniors. The happy-go-lucky students inject excitement into everyday school life by adding a touch of zest to the monotony.

Vocational School

After Steve Zackasee sews the car, it can go out on the road.

Tom Stanec whistles while he works.

This plane is ready for a take-off.

We are truly fortunate to enble our students of Memorial High to attend the Vocational School and help maintain our high standard of skilled workers in this country.

Those juniors attending include: Stephanie Bailey, Karen Billec, James Black, Sheri Burke, Keith Candella, Karen Carwell, Mildred Collazo, Evelyn Crowl, Vincent D'Amato, Robert Duraey, Mary Flores, Michele Flowers, William Gilliam, Frank Grachanin, Rich Hetrick, Lisa Nolan, Jean Ihnat, Rita Jevesck, Michael Kapsulis, Bob Kopinsky, Dick Labrie, Robert Leskey, James Loftus, Frank Mazzocco, Rose McCormick, Janis Michaels, Vanessa Milhouse, John Miller, Wayne Miller, Elsa Miranda, Mary Missos, Joyce Mitulinski, Kimberly Morales, Marlene Narelli, Charles Nisevich, Penny Palmer, Lisa Pollander, Michael Pollice, Michele Puskarcik, Angel Rivera, Theresa Rosario, John Sanders, Jennifer Sandusky.

Mike Tonkinson learns to work with the snow.

Electricity course can be shocking.

Rose McCormick is getting ready for a night out on the town.

When they're threw, these girls will make good secretaries for some executive.

Chuck Nesivich is a student V.I.P.

LuAnn Carano and Mary Rivera are happy about a good profit from a school dance.

Minerva Calderone and Marisa Bonilla work consistently on their art project.

Lee Murphy would rather daydream than study.

Cheryl Stankich is not disturbed by the "mad cameraman since she is involved in intent studying.

PROMPT THE SOPHOMORES!

2:30 is a long way off for John Skorich, who could hardly wait till school's out.

Dee Dee Turner bursts into laughter as she hears one of Mr. Cvengros' many jokes.

Linda Miconi's eyeglasses come in handy for spying.

on Candella spots the "mad cameraman" who takes a picture of his friends as they lk shop.

With one year of experience and two years to go, these sophomores are no longer the school's youngest. These growing stars are now the major actors and actresses in their original production of Sophomore Student Life.

Waywardly and gladly I pry back at those nine months and see only shadows of the topsey-turvey times;
Panicked looks of lost greenies
Steps in the new big school
First detention!!?!!
New friends
Pleas for a clue on what's the battlecry
Bygone kidstuff
Wide-open mouths, looking at the cute senior guys
Kids scared to dance
Forgotten locker combinations
Halls filled with changing classes
Third floor homerooms
Seemingly big high school kids
First indications of the excitement to come.

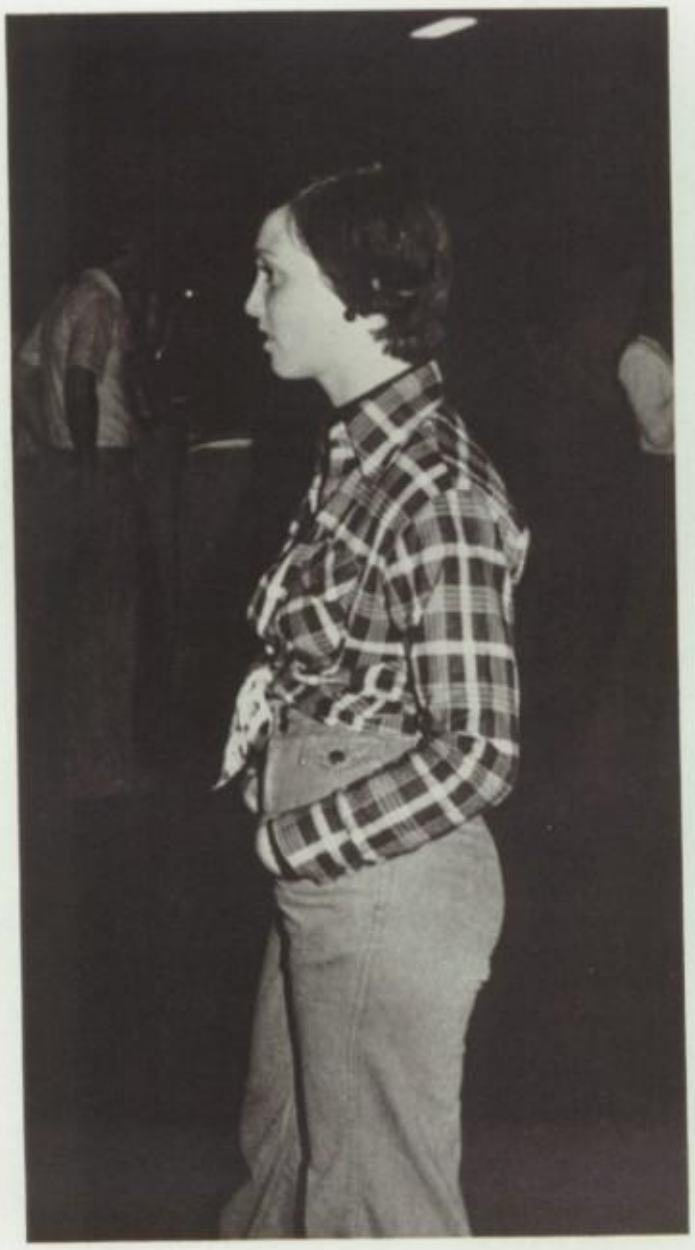
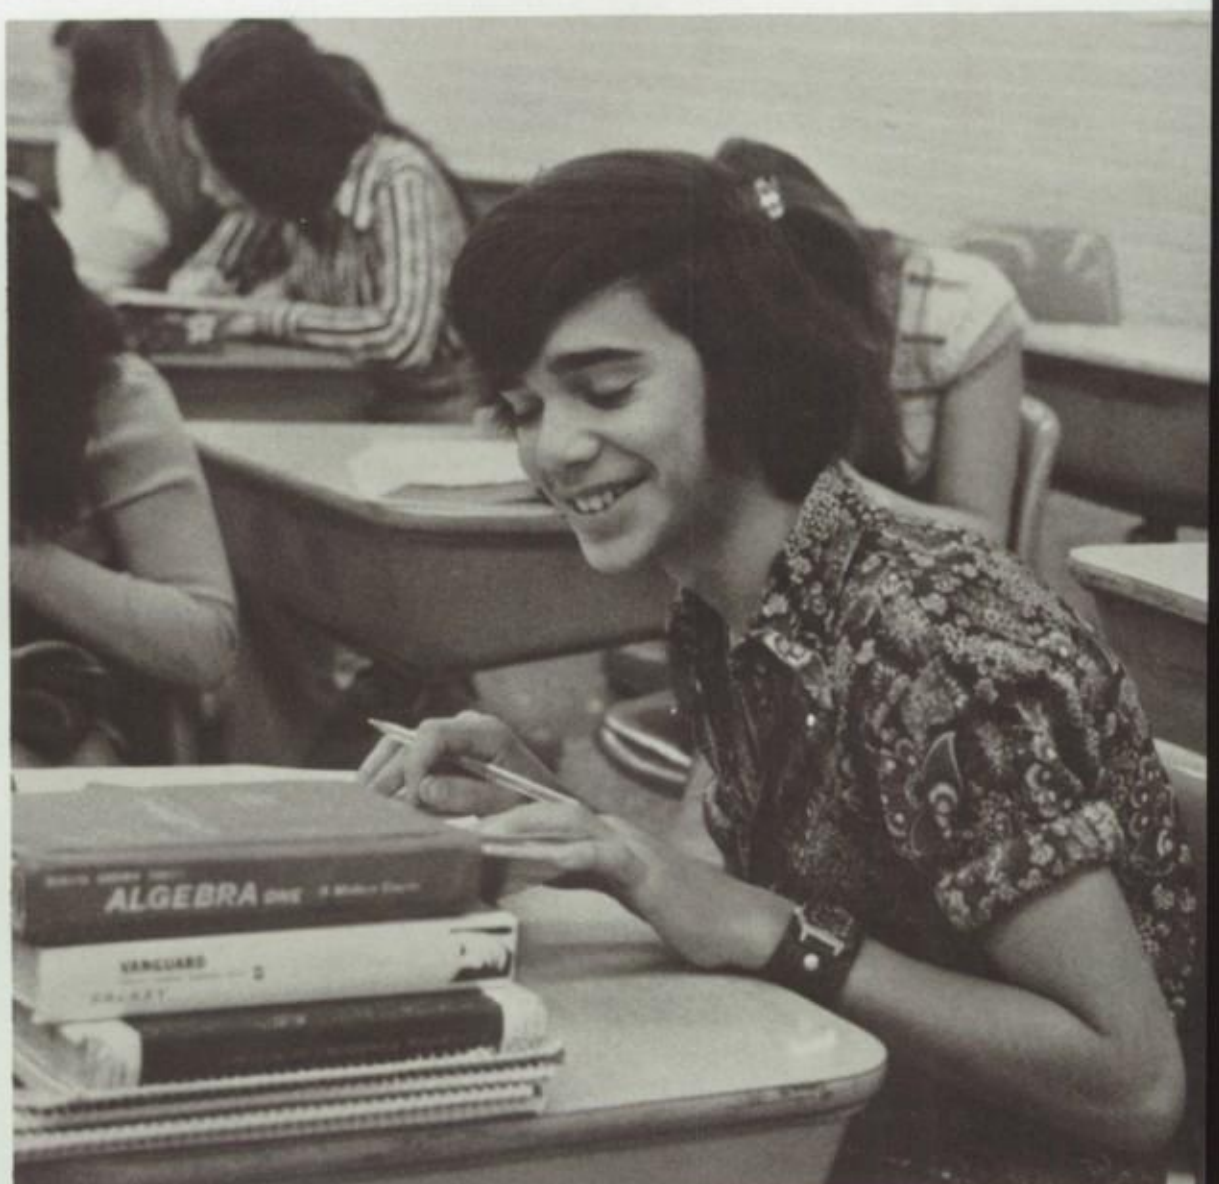
FRESHMEN ANSWER TO CURTAIN CALL

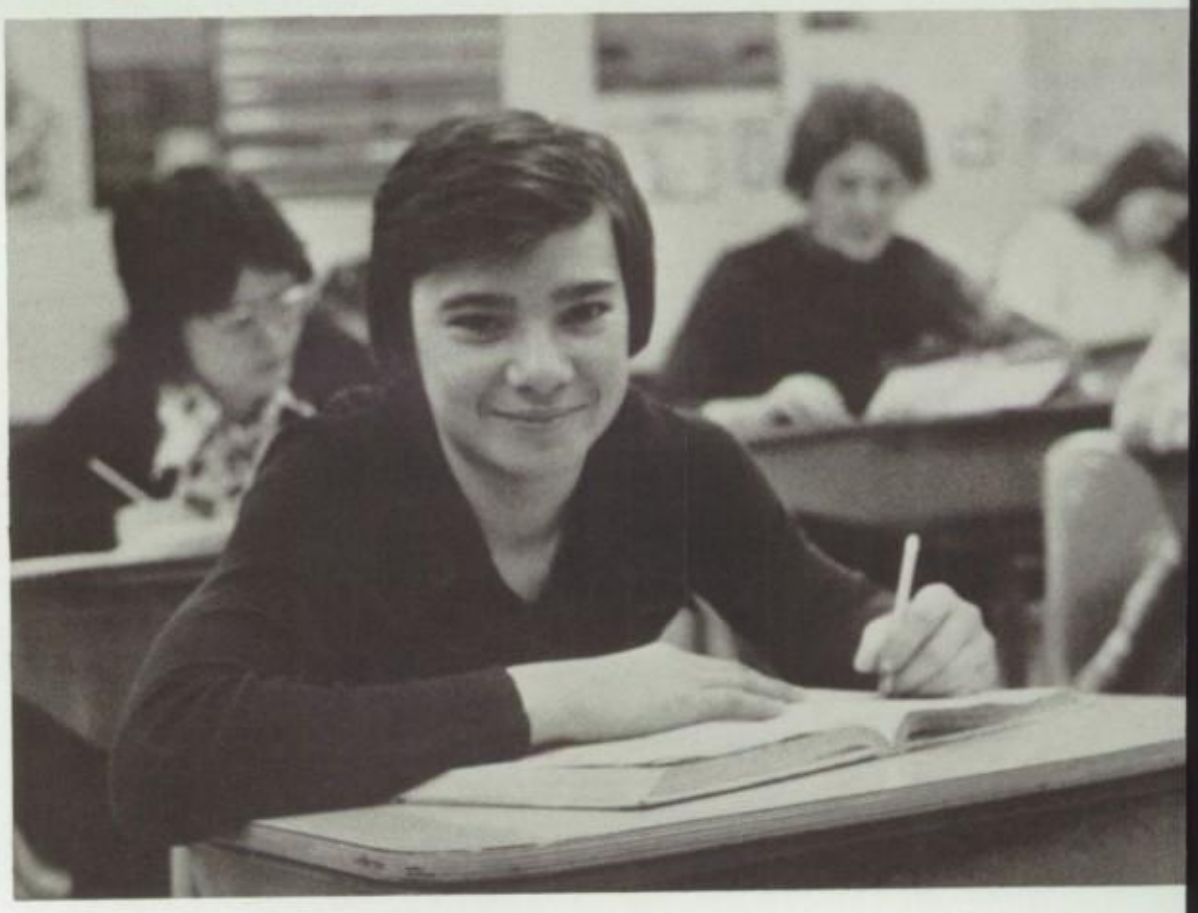
Cathy Cougras waits for her favotire song.



No auditioning was needed to bring out the creative talent in these debuting performers. Even though they are new to the show, they adapted well to the new surroundings; always being a big part of the scene.

Mark Belli takes time out from his studying to smile for the camera.





Gus Nicoloau has nothing better to do than fiddle through his books.

SENIORS

Jerome Williams struts the MCJHS's modern halls.

Mark Delco as a future photographer and Dave Suhich a future star?

They're deciding on how to fix this jalopy so they can cruise.

Wow, look at those muscles!

Childcare class will soon turn these girls into perfect mommies.

Manuel Hazidrosos looks like he should be in the space program.

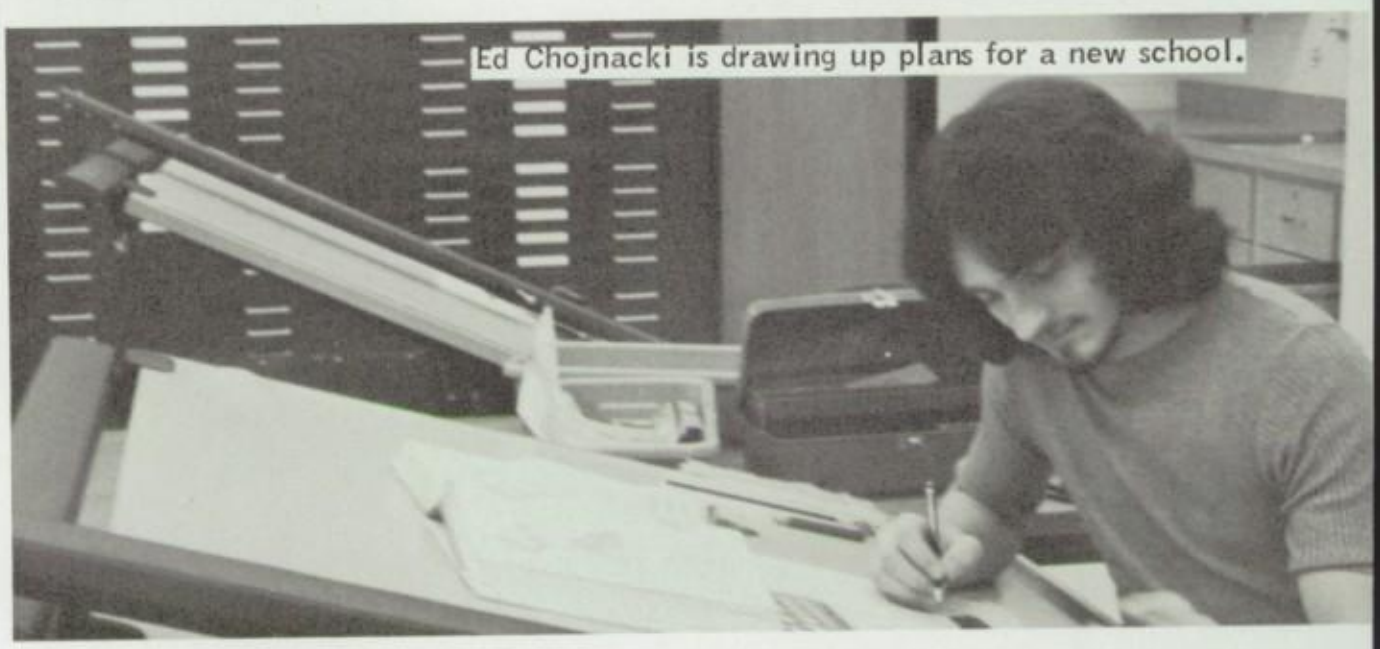
MCJVS

It's a bed check.

All of that wood and our guys are loafing.

The MCJVS is a perfect example of the latest efforts to bring out the skills and talents of young men and women who are eager to use their minds and hands.

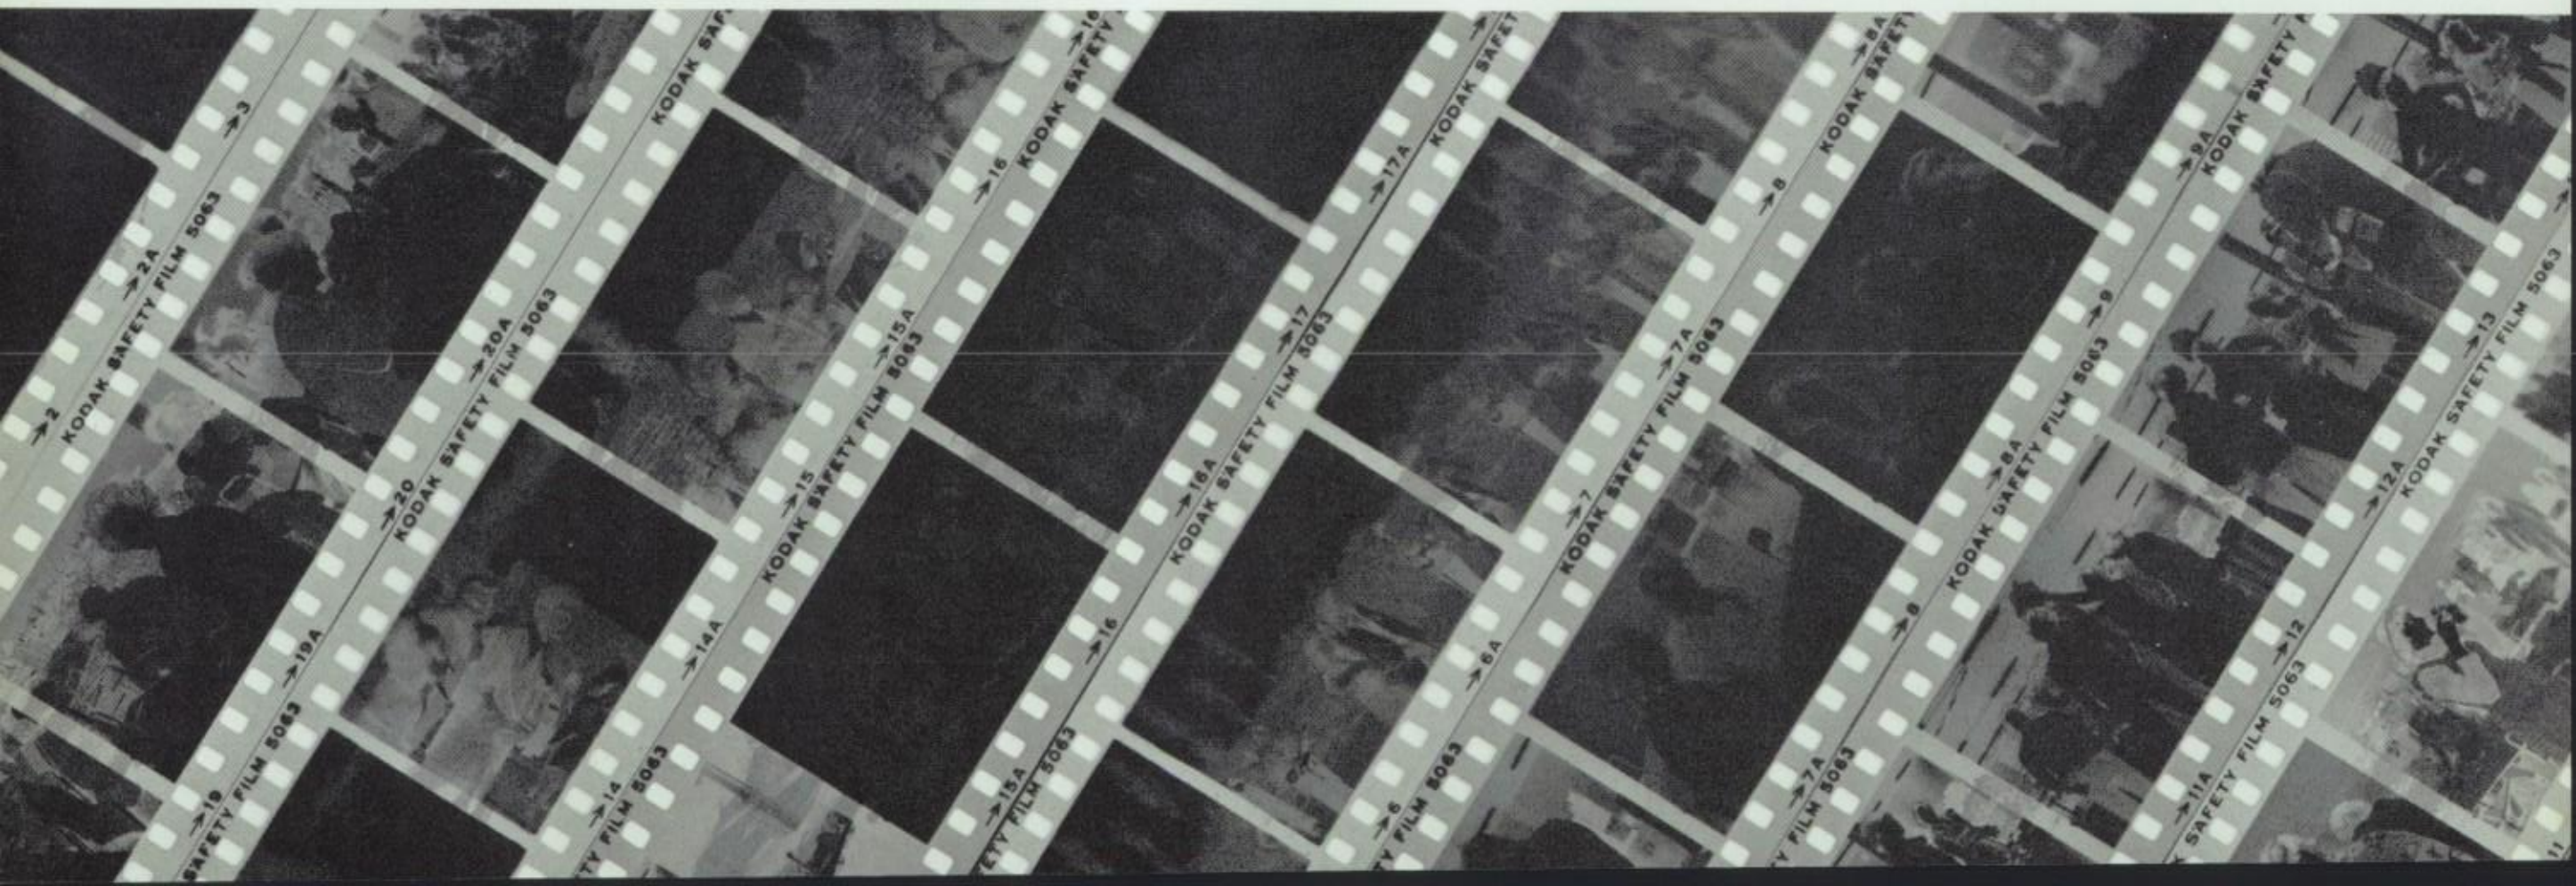
Our seniors include: Marsha Adams, Irene Belasco, Joseph Bieganowski, Kathleen Billec, Charles Black, Dora Bulatko, Sandra Burgos, Sandra Ceballos, Edmund Chojnacki, Sylvia Cox, Richard Cunning, Michael Cutrone, Mark Delco, Gladys Diaz, Agapi Dourlas, Marianne Duda, Linda Frazzini, Ronald Geewax, Manuel Hazidrosos, Genia Herns, Deborah Johnson, Brenda McCoy, Mike Melnik, James Miller, Nanette Millette, Charles Mrakovich, Ronald Pagan, Rene Pollice, Dolores Porubensky, Joseph Quinn, Joseph Romito, Mary Rosario, Pete Stamos, Elizabeth Stanko, Dave Suhich, Manuel Tsoulfas, John VanSuch, Jerome Williams, Carole Zackasee.



Ed Chojnacki is drawing up plans for a new school.

Pete Stamos is learning to move them out.

FEATURES



COLORFUL MEMORIES

Prom king and queen George Gulu and Mary Beth Rudolphi.

Everyone joins in conversation.

One of the most exciting events of the year is the Prom. Much preparation and hard work made the night a success. A song sung by Chicago, "Colour My World" was the theme of the long awaited night.

The elegant setting for this festive occasion was the Regency Room. As the clock neared 9, the couples began to fill the hall. Everyone had to do a double take as the students cast off their jeans and T-Shirts for the evening and donned formal attire.

Ushers and usherettes for the evening were sophmore class officers: Row 1--Mernie Zackasee, Diane Tabus, Coleen Pantelis, and sponser, Miss Polkabla. Row 2--Paul Struharik, Tony Marino and Michael Savka.

Couples caught by surprise.

DREAMS OF . . .

Moments spent remeniscing with friends.

Linda Franks and Ken Stahura dance through the night.

Mike Duda and Donna Mangiarelli take pictures for long lasti memories.

George Gulu and Lori Struharik are the center of attention.

OUR MOMENTS TOGETHER

Couples share one of the last dances of the evening.

Juniors enjoy their first prom.

Debi Johnson and David Lucido enjoy the prom.

Sue Bundza dances to the music.

Couples enjoyed an equisite evening of dining, dancing and conversation. The highlight of the evening arrived and the king and queen were crowned.

After the prom the couples rushed home, picked up their discarded jeans once again and hurried to the After Prom at the Holiday Bowl. There they enjoyed six more hours of entertainment.

On Sunday morning, the students awoke to find that the night they had long awaited had swiftly ended. But the memories they held of that magic night could never be erased.

Put your head on my shoulder.

Sunshine plays the tune.

On Oct. 1 before the Campbell-Boardman game the most thrilling autumn event of 1976 had finally arrived. It was Homecoming. Excitement and joy filled the air with laughter and smiles on all.

The traditional parade was especially lovely this year as the court rode on a beautiful float decorated by the junior class. The Juniors worked long and hard this year and their efforts were not in vain.

After the game a dance was held in the cafeteria. Music was by Sunshine.

Soon the evening was over and the time and place became a memory. But, it was a cherished memory of that beautiful day and all the people who made the dream come true.

SPAGHETTI BOWL

Taking a rest before the dance are Tony Stiles, Emanuel Ginnis and John Spencer.

On February 3rd, the class of "77" gathered in the high school cafeteria to attend the Annual Senior Spaghetti Dinner and Dance. As the crowd arrived, they cast their votes for king and queen. Soon the cafeteria was filled with the chit chat and laughter of the unusually well-dressed students.

Although the weather was bitter cold outside, when the students entered the school they were transposed to sunny Italy. Red checkered tablecloths and flickering candles provided the table decor as the seniors were serenaded with Italian music.

Gifts are presented to the three celebrities by John Murar.

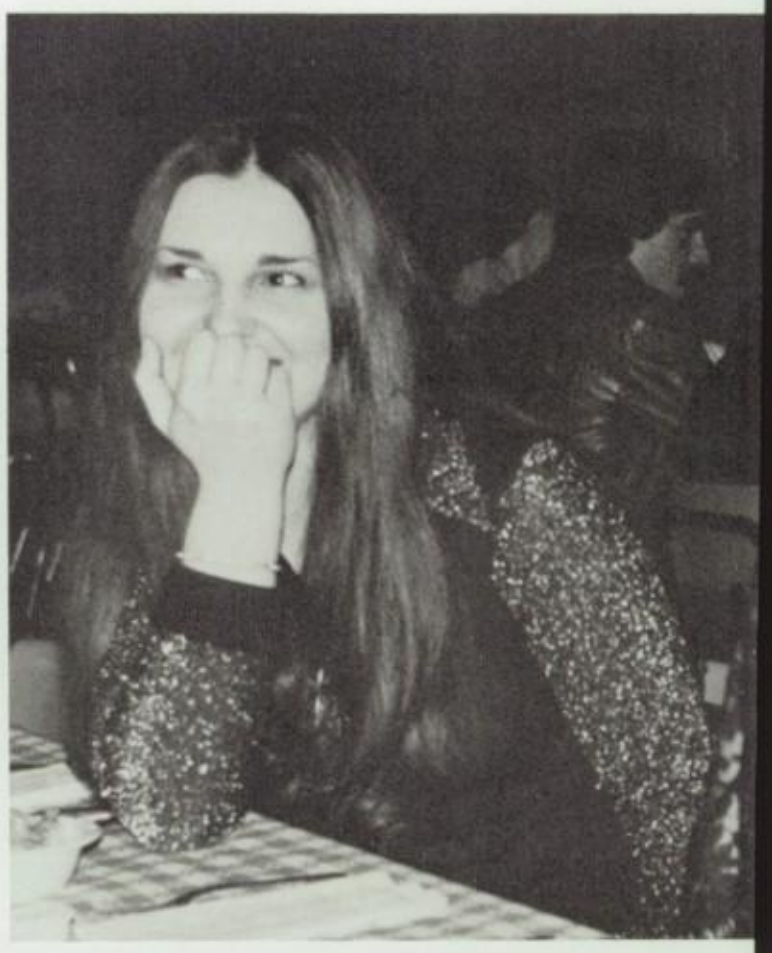
A sweet twosome in the crowd are Linda Franks and Kenny Struhara.

This is one time the cafeteria was filled.
This is where it's happening.

anet Ringos is as excited as the chosen queen, Donna Mangerelli.

A bit of style was added to this special night.

Dee Tomcik sizes up the crowd.



The spaghetti didn't come fast enough for Frank Mastoris, John VanSuch and Nick Mastoris.

After the feast had ended, all sat back and anxiously awaited the announcement of the royalty of the evening.

To the surprise, excitement and applause of all, the court was announced. The king and queen for the evening were Louie Diaz and Donna Mangiarelli.

After the crowning was completed and the congratulations ended, the band for the evening, Bliss, played a song just for the court. After the last spin on the dance floor, the students joined the court and an atmosphere of enjoyment prevailed.

At eleven-thirty, the seniors once again put on their coats, hats, scarves and gloves and braved the whipping wind outside--but for three lovely hours memories were collected that could never again be recaptured.

As the night went on, things got funny for Danny Brajkovich and Domini Lentine.

Waitresses and waiters for the evening were Junior class members.

FIRE . . . HOLLER . . .

Wow, what a light! The annual bon fire was a real blast before the Struthers-Campbell rivalry. People young and old, with red-hot faces and fire-bright eyes had a case of "spirit fever."

Excitement aroused students as they gathered around the fire, joined hands, screamed cheers at the top of their lungs, and laughed with joy.

The fire lit the city so it could be seen from afar.

Wind spread this small fire into a giant blaze moving people back inch by inch as it grew.

Coach Pinciaro finished his coaching debut at Memorial with a 1-11 record. The devils wrestled with the better teams in the area resulting in their only victory over St. Thomas Aquinas. However, in wrestling the competition is one on one. Many team members emerged as individual winners. Talented wrestlers returning next year are John Payne and Bob Vaschak.

"PAWNDERING THE SITUATION" LEADS TO WINS!

Don Sebest moves his rook cautiously.

The Chess Team ended another winning season under a new coach, Aric LaRocca. The team fought their way to the top of the league through many hours of practice. The team in order of their placings are Jim Douglas, George Spirtos, Rich Hetrick, Don Sebest, Emanuel Papadopoulis, Angel Serrano, Manuel Spirtos, Greg Mihalopoulos, Chuck Anzalone, Chuck Rich, and Mike Samulka. Members of the club not on the team are: Emanuel Gialousis, Ron Perline, and Tim Mincher.

Chess takes deep concentration and patience.

WORKING IN UNISON

"Put all your things away!"
"Get busy on your layouts!"
"We need more action shots!"
These are common phrases spoken by the yearbook editor to keep things orderly.

Hard work was established by these chosen yearbook staff members. Making layouts, knocking their brains out to come up with a good caption, raising money, and taking pictures are a few of the many tasks to be done. The main accomplishment, though, is that they have learned to work together and still remain friends.

Without the hard work of students like Nick Libertin the yearbook would be impossible.

MINDFUL OF THE PAST, THEY FUTURE

Superintendent of Schools--Robert A. Hedrick

Congratulations to the Class of 1977. You have reached an important step in your lifetime. When your parents or older friends tell you it is not the end, but a beginning, believe them for it is true. Growing up and attending school is a beautiful part of your life. It is also a difficult time because you are learning and you do not always have the knowledge or experience to help you make the right decisions. Consequently, you have to depend upon others to help guide you along. In most instances this has been your parents. You may not always have agreed with their advice, but if you look back as you get older you will understand that they were looking out for your best interests. Certainly, at this important time of your life, you should take the time to thank your parents. Your growing years have been difficult for them also. Remember also that your turn will come to walk in their shoes.

Whatever the future holds for you I want you to know that it has been my privilege to have been associated with you.

Respectfully yours,

Robert A. Hedrick

Superintendent of Schools

LEAD US TOWARD A BRIGHTER

Anthony Nolfi--Principal

As your Principal and Assistant Principal, we are primarily interested in developing greater teacher student respect. We want to secure an atmosphere of openness, and most of all bring about a strong sense of partnership with teachers, students, and parents. With this attitude Memorial High School cannot have anything but a favorable outcome for now and in the future.

The most important feature connected with this school is YOU, the student of Memorial High School. It will be your responsibility to obtain the goals you set for yourself as you work toward the development of a saleable skill. It will be OUR responsibility to assist, direct and help you along the way to eventual placement in the area of your choice.

STUDENTS VALUE

"You're tardy; go to the office . . . You have a test tomorrow . . . !" These are familiar phrases that for many years to come will echo in minds as warm memories of carefree years at Memorial. Because high school graduation has a sentimental way of changing displeasing echoes to gratifying recollections, we are now conscious of the positive aims behind our teachers pressuring, reprimanding, and issuing "unreasonable" assignments.

Now It"s Your Turn

A FATHER'S ADVICE TO HIS SON

From "Hamlet"

. . . Give thy thoughts no tongue,
Nor any unproportion'd thought his act.
Be thou familiar, but by no means vulgar;
The friends thou hast, and their adoption tried,
Grapple them to thy soul with hoops of steel;
But do not dull thy palm with entertainment
Of each new-hatch'd, unfledg'd comrade. Beware of entrance to a quarrel, but, being in,
Bear't that th' opposed may beware of thee.
Give every man thine ear, but few thy voice;
Take each man's censure, but reserve thy judgement.
Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy,
But not express'd in fancy; rich, not gaudy;
For the apparel oft proclaims the man,
And they in France of the best rank and station
Are most select and generous, chief in that.
Neither a borrower, nor a lender be;
For loan oft loses both itself and friend,
And borrowing dulls the edge of husbandry.
This above all: to thine own self be true,
And it must follow, as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man.

YOU

THE CROWD APPLAUDS...

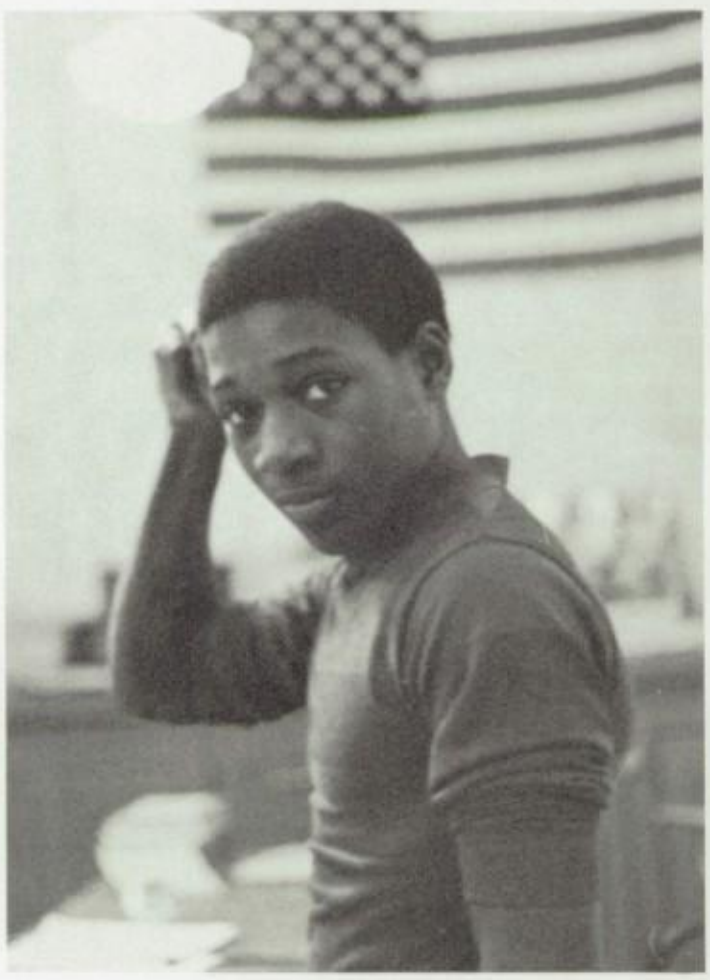
The seniors sing the alma mater one more time. . .



David Green scratches his head in confusion.

Jeff Vargo laughs the night away.

n the field at the last football game.

e Jakowbowski says it with a laugh.

The band and majorettes warm up a cold Friday night by cheering.

The crowd enjoyed another year of exciting activities. The spirit of Memorial lived on this year through the noisy halls, graffitied walls, class scoop, creazy weekends, friday nights at Mac's and rowdy students skipping classes. To some, this school year was just another year of boring classes but to many others the memories of this year will be remembered as the best time of their lives.

Something has caught Zelda Davis's eye.

TIMES TO REMEMBER

David Datillo proves that studying sometimes can be pleasant.

Throwing spitballs, cutting classes, roaming the halls and daydreaming in studyhall all make up the memorable experiences that the students will never forget. Even though they have alot of fun doing crazy things, most students still find the time to accomplish studying and homework.

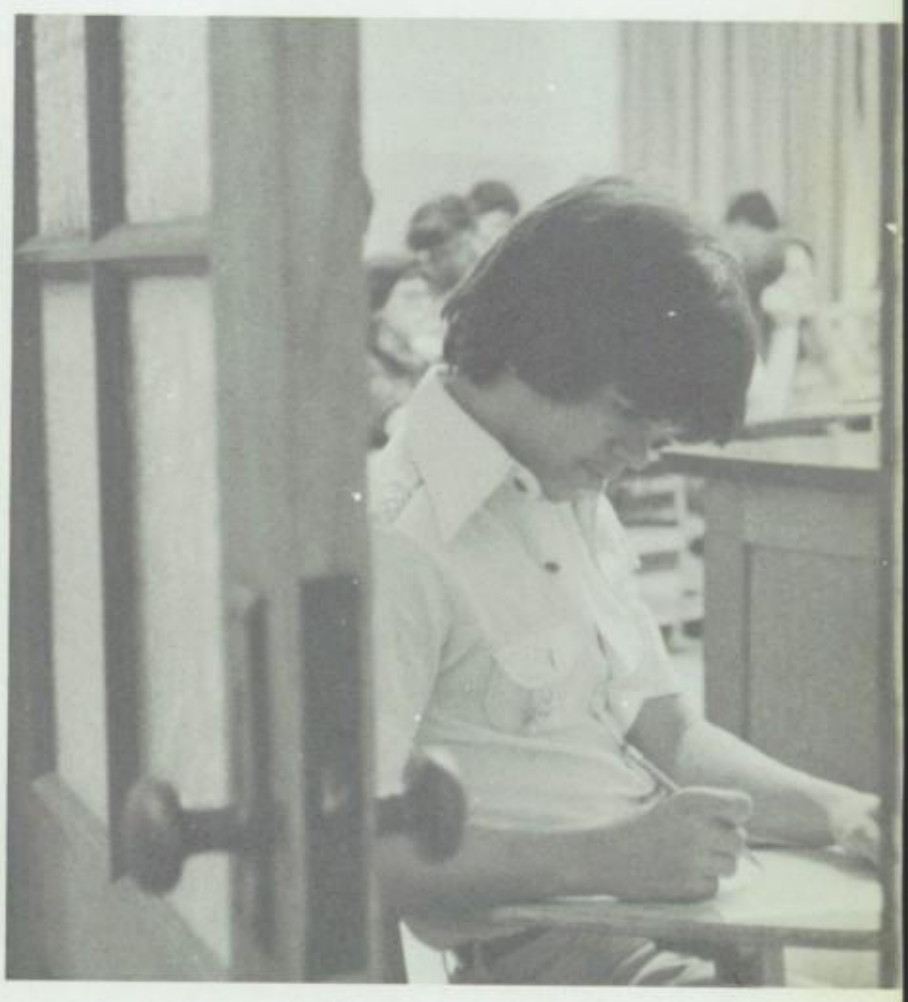
George Lisko believes that concentration is a good skill to master.

Dom Gatelaro takes care of business.

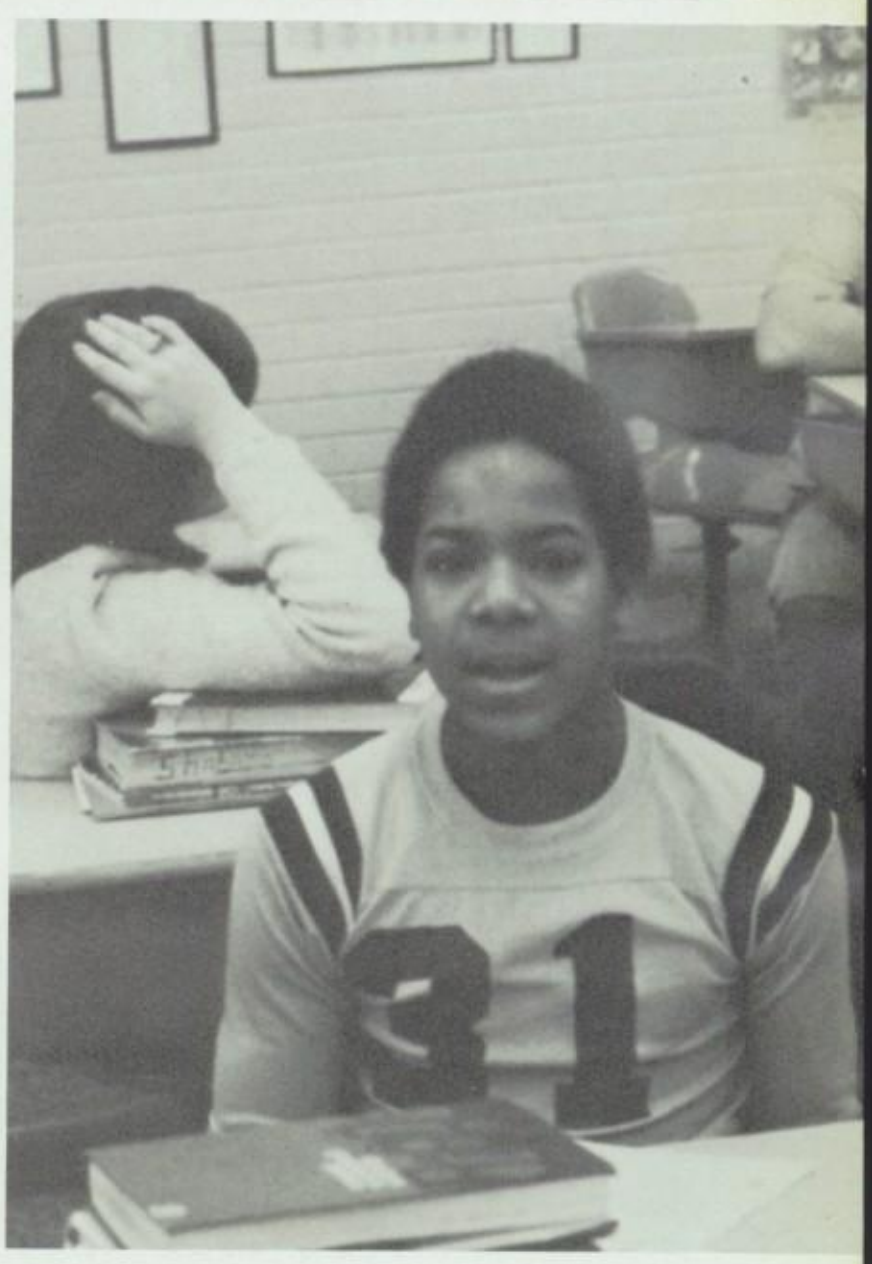
You are what you learn.

Crystal Anderson realizes that hard work pays off.

Louie Suarez knows that studying is a never-ending process.



A boy and a book--two ingredients of success for Mark Trexler.



Jeffrey VanCobb waits inpatiently for the bell to ring.
